The county responded and indicated that they would like Mr. Rogowski, who is a CPA, to take Mr. Biby's place on the board. Once the appointment is approved by the LDFA, it will go to the City Commission for final approval. NEW BUSINESS

SMIC UPDATE: Mr. DeWit stated that a large local CRO has begun leasing space in the SMIC, and will continue to do so until their new building in Battle Creek is finished. Southwest Michigan First and the SMIC are working together to create marketing materials for their visit to Bio International in Chicago. Nanovir has obtained additional federal funding. RealBio has moved into the SMIC. Utility costs are under budget this year, and everything in the facility is working extremely well. He attended the ACE meeting in Ann Arbor, and on May 26 will meet with the Van Andel Research Institute to discuss collaboration. Some cash for special initiatives and a donation from the Van Andel Research Institute will be used to open a core life sciences laboratory.

BTR PARK UPDATE: Mr. Miller provided the board members with a copy of an economic impact study on the BTR Park. He also did an analysis this spring on the student impact. There have been over 100 student internships so far, 132 WMU graduates work for the companies, and two companies were founded by WMU students. Three new companies have been added to the park in the last 90 days. Fluid Process Equipment is erecting a solar array along US-131. Students will be involved, and there will be a kiosk there that will show how much energy is being generated. The light posts in the park are rusting, but Consumers Energy has said that they cannot maintain them. An agreement has been reached whereby WMU will donate the paint and student volunteers will paint the light posts. WMU is working with Adams Outdoor Advertising to replace the billboard along US-131, and it looks like that will be a digital billboard. The annual bicycle race at the BTR Park will be held in July.

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT UPDATE: Mr. Kisscorni stated that Pfizer announced yesterday that the City of Kalamazoo will not lose any manufacturing jobs. The city was also able to retain Parker Hannifin. The Brownfield Redevelopment Authority is working with The Hinman Company on a project at Burdick and Walnut, and with the People’s Food Co-op on a potential project on a brownfield site. Ms. Bland noted that they are seeing inquiries pick up slightly. At a recent corporate real estate conference, Kalamazoo was highlighted as one of 36 emerging research and development centers in the United States.
